

Surname [You need to write your surname (only) here] 1

Student [You need to write your name and surname here]

Instructor [You need to write your instructor's name and surname here]

Course [You need to name your subject or class here]

Date [You need to indicate a date]

Title [You need to indicate a title of your paper]

[This MLA sample paper template was designed by wri1ter.com]

Abstract

[This abstract section must be provided as a separate page if you need it for your research paper or ignore it]

Text (150-200 words)

I. Introduction with a thesis statement [It will be your next page if an abstract part is provided.

If there is no need for an abstract section, start your introduction paragraph after your title]

Text

Comment:

- Engage your reader with a hook.
- Provide background information.
- End with a clear thesis statement.

II. Body

A. Point 1

Text

B. Point 2

Text

C. Point 3

Text

Comment:

- Start each with a topic sentence.
- Include evidence or examples.
- Explain the significance of the evidence.
- Connect back to your thesis.

III. Conclusion

Text

Comment:

- Restate your thesis in a new way.
- Summarize your main points.
- Offer a final thought or call to action.

Works Cited

[You need to indicate all the sources used in your paper]

Source A

Source B

Source C

Comment:

- Start on a new page.
- Title "Works Cited" centered.
- Double-space all entries.
- Use hanging indent.